

Texas Health Steps Quick Reference Guide Updated July 2018

The Texas Health Steps Quick Reference Guide has been updated. Under the column titled "Mental Health Screening," additional screening tools for adolescents have been added. The mental health screening limitation was updated for procedure codes 96160 and 96161. New postpartum depression screening procedure codes G8431 and G8510 were added.

For additional information about the new benefit postpartum depression screening refer to article titled, "Postpartum Depression Screening during an Infant's Texas Health Steps Checkup to Become a Benefit of Texas Medicaid July 1, 2018," posted on TMHP website May 17, 2018.

The updated THSteps Quick Reference Guide document is available on both TMHP and El Paso Health websites.

New website for the Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants and Children (WIC)

The website includes features such as online nutrition classes, recipes, and a newsletter feature that provides parents with customized information based on the child's current age for children ages 1-5. Parents can subscribe to the newsletter for information in English and Spanish please visit the new website at <https://texaswic.org/>

Prenatal Screening for Domestic Violence and Substance Use New Web Page Resource

Providers have a unique opportunity to improve the health of women affected by domestic violence and substance use. Millions of women experience domestic violence, which is most prevalent among women of reproductive age. Alcohol use and other substance use disorders are often underdiagnosed in women, regardless of age, race, ethnicity and socioeconomic status. Please visit the website at Texas Health and Human Services site <https://hhs.texas.gov/> search or click on Prenatal Screening for Domestic Violence and Substance Use for more information.

If you have questions regarding this notification, please contact El Paso Health Provider Relations at 915-532-3778 ext.01507, Monday thru Friday 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.